MRS SMITH'S CAT

Mrs Smith: Police, please help! I can't find my cat!

Police officer: What does it look like?

Mrs Smith: She's very beautiful. She's white. She's got a black tail. It's as black as coal. And she's very clever. She can open doors. She can climb trees. She can understand me. She can almost talk.

Police officer: Well, Mrs Smith. Perhaps your cat is trying to call you now, but she can't because your telephone is busy. Goodbye!
